The world is changing.
EU is ready.
Are you?
Start here.

Welcome to EU Talent Day 2021!

Dear students,

On behalf of all management, faculty and staff at EU Business School, I am delighted to welcome you to EU Talent Day 2021.

New times bring new opportunities! The global health crisis has precipitated a period of intense and rapid change, and businesses have had to adapt quickly to the new reality. Digital transformation has accelerated exponentially, and the leaders of tomorrow must be agile, entrepreneurial thinkers who can respond creatively to a constantly evolving environment. At EU, you have learned these key skills, which will ensure you excel in the workplace of the future.

Our Talent Day has been designed to provide you with the opportunity to interact with successful professionals from a range of industries and sectors, discover the major trends that are shaping the employment landscape, and to make valuable professional connections that will lay the foundations for your future career success in business.

The program is full of exciting possibilities. You will be able to participate in dynamic workshops, hear from inspirational guest speakers, learn from mentors and receive indispensable insights and advice from successful entrepreneurs and executives at leading multinational corporations through talks and panel discussions.

Your future is filled with potential and I encourage you to embrace it!

Useful Tips

Make the most of the annual EU Talent Day, before, during and after the event.

Before

- Look at the companies attending this event and the career options on offer. Do your research well.
- Create a short list of those you that most interest you.
- Tailor your CV according to the companies attending and the job opportunities available and bring extra copies.
- Apply for a job with the company before the event and take advantage of getting feedback about your application in person.
- Prepare an elevator pitch that highlights your unique selling points.
- Think about what you want from this experience and make the most of it. Networking? A job contract?
- Dress smartly in order to make a good impression.

During

- Arrive early.
- Prepare a digital version of your CV to show and/or send to contacts you make at the event. Bring a folder to collect any papers or business cards you receive from companies..
- Don't ask simple questions. Do your research and impress company representatives.
- Link company values and job positions to your own skills and experience.
- Make your conversations short and sweet, be concise and purposeful.
- Be your business best: Talent Day is a professional event.
- Collect business cards and LinkedIn contacts

After

- Use the business cards you have collected. Add your new contacts to LinkedIn (make sure your profile looks professional) and send them a thank-you message.
- Send your job application to the contacts you have made as soon as possible! You don't want to be forgotten.
- In your follow up, reference EU Talent Day and the employees you were chatting with. Make sure you use names and tell them what you found interesting about your chat. This will add credibility to your message and make it more personal.
- Contact the EU Career Services Department for advice about selection processes or interviews.
