EU BUSINESS SCHOOL'S MBA PROGRAMS RANKED TOP FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR BY CEO MAGAZINE

EU Business School (EU) is extremely proud to announce that our MBA programs have been ranked top for the third year in a row in CEO Magazine's Global MBA Rankings 2017. The rankings are as follows:

Rank 1, Global Online MBA Rankings

Rank 3, Tier One, Global Executive MBA Rankings

Tier One, European MBA Rankings

EU's Online MBA, named global number one in CEO Magazine's 2015 and 2016 rankings, held its position as global number one for 2017. While EU's on-campus MBA and the Executive MBA held their respective 2016 positions as top tier in Europe and top tier globally, with the latter gaining the added distinction of being ranked third among the 160 contributing schools worldwide.

CEO Magazine's MBA Rankings bring together 160 leading institutions from across the world in North America, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and the BRICS. Since its launch in 2012, it has become a leading global reference tool for MBA candidates. The rankings take a number of factors into consideration including international diversity, gender make-up, faculty-to-student ratio, faculty qualifications, learning environment, class size and more.

EU is delighted to be recognized by this renowned organization and is especially proud to be in such great company, among some of the world's most prestigious business schools.
