- EU Business School's (EU) MBA climbs positions to rank in the top 140 MBA programs in the world and #42 in Europe in the QS MBA rankings 2021.
- EU's MBA program continues to rank #1 worldwide for class and faculty diversity in recognition of its multicultural community of 100+ nationalities and proportion of female students and faculty members.
- EU increases its global position in employability, return on investment and entrepreneurship, reflecting the success of EU graduates across all business sectors.

EU Business School (EU) is proud to announce that its MBA program has climbed the QS MBA rankings 2021 and now ranks as one of the top 140 programs worldwide and #42 in Europe. These rankings are testament to the outstanding education offered by EU Business School and the commitment and dedication of its faculty.

EU was ranked the worldwide leader in class and faculty diversity for the third year running, achieving high marks for the number of nationalities in its classrooms, gender balance and proportion of international faculty. EU is very proud of its multicultural and diverse community and continues to foster a flexible, open mindset in all its students to prepare them for a successful career in global business.

EU scored significantly in the categories of employability, entrepreneurship and alumni outcomes, reflecting EU's commitment to entrepreneurial values and the success achieved in a wide array of business sectors by its dynamic graduates. In employability, its MBA was ranked 25th in Europe.

The vice president and managing director of EU Business School, Mr. Carl Craen, is delighted with this recognition and stated, "We are very delighted that QS has once again ranked our MBA program so highly, recognizing our excellence and commitment to providing an outstanding pragmatic business education to a diverse, international community of future leaders."

The QS MBA Rankings are compiled by QS, an independent and trusted organization with more than 25 years of experience in providing students with guidance on business programs. This year, the ranking evaluated 258 MBA programs from institutions in 40 countries across the world. The following five indicator groups were used in the analysis: employability (40%), return on investment (20%), entrepreneurship and alumni outcomes (15%), thought leadership (15%), and class and faculty diversity (10%).
